

Announcing the next JASNA Regional Meeting: Sunday, March 4th

Professor Marcia McClintock Folsom from Boston will be our guest speaker. Her topic will be:

The Ward Sisters and the Next Generation: Narrative Innovations in Mansfield Park

Undercurrents of anger and competition among the Ward sisters taint the lives of the Bertram and Price children, and Austen chooses a vulnerable child as heroine to explore the effects of those conflicts in the next generation. In her talk, Professor Folsom will highlight some of Austen's innovations in examining family dynamics and her techniques of rendering consciousness.

Marcia McClintock Folsom is Professor of Literature and Chair of Humanities and Writing at Wheelock College. She is the editor of two volumes in the Modern Language Association series, Approaches to Teaching Austen's Pride and Prejudice and Approaches to Teaching Austen's Emma, and she is co-editor with John Wiltshire of the third volume, Approaches to Teaching Austen's Mansfield Park. A longtime JASNA member, she has spoken at many AGMs and also speaks in the MLA Radio project called What's the Word?

The meeting will be held at 2:00 p.m. in the Kimmel Center, 60 Washington Square

A lavish tea will be served following the program
