Saturday, October 9th at 2:00 p.m.

Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, 7 West 55th Street (between Fifth and Sixth Aves.)

“Jane Austen & Character: An Actor’s View”

Angela Barlow, the British actress will examine the methods Austen might have used to create her inspired range of complex characters, and draw intriguing parallels with the actor’s process of building a role. Using lively characterizations from Austen’s novels to illustrate her points, Angela brings us Catherine Morland, Isabella Thorpe, Mr. and Mrs. Bennet, Emma, and many others.

During the meeting, we will also have a fascinating discussion of “fly on the wall conversations” that might have taken place in Austen’s novels. Pug’s Boutique will be open with new merchandise, and there will of course be a delicious tea.
