

DRESSING THE MISS BENNETS

By Lisa Brown

A lecture with modeling
Saturday, September 10, 2011

"Their eyes were immediately wandering up in the street in quest of the officers, and nothing less than a very smart bonnet indeed, or a really new muslin in a shop window, could recall them."

Lisa Brown of the Syracuse Region presents her popular fashion show/workshop to explain what the well-dressed Regency woman wore. Better yet, Lisa explains how JASNA members can easily and economically replicate a stylish ensemble. Alas, we are not above vulgar economy in these trying times, so Lisa's inventive methods for achieving Regency dress will be most welcome.

Miss Brown will need volunteers of all ages, shapes and sizes (4 to 26) to model her outfits or their own Regency attire. She also needs people to help unload her boxes, assist models into their clothes and be useful backstage. If you are interested in volunteering in either capacity please contact Maureen O'Connor at ocnormaureen@mac.com or call her at 917 797 2646.

This Regional meeting will be held at the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church at 7 West 55 Street (between 5th and 6th Avenues). The meeting will begin at 2:00 p.m. and be followed by a lavish tea.
