Elinor?

Wentworth?

A JASNA JAUNT IN JANUARY

On Saturday, January 21, we will take a day trip to the Yale Center for British Art. There we will enjoy a special Jane Austen-themed tour of the permanent collection. Our guide, Patricia Carr, has found several portraits that could happily stand in for various characters in Austen's novels. See if you can find works that match other characters.

After a break for lunch, we will tour the exhibit, Johann Zoffany RA: Society Observed. Zoffany (1733-1810) painted Georgian society, from the aristocrats to the art academy and the theaters. His paintings reflect the emergence of the British empire.

Our bus will be ready for boarding at 8:45 am, outside Café Centro near the SE corner of Vanderbilt Ave and 45th St (under the Grand Central Terminal overpass). We expect to return by 5:30. You can join us on the bus or arrive on your own. Join us for a prix fixe lunch at a nearby restaurant or make your own arrangements.

❖❖

Name: __________________________ (please print) Email ______________

Phone______________________ Is this your cell phone? Yes ___ No ___
(We'd like to be able to reach you that morning.)

For both bus and tour:	_____	members	@ $30 =	$__________
	_____	guests	@ $35 =	__________
For tour alone	_____	members	@ $ 5 =	__________
	_____	guests	@ $10 =	__________
For group lunch	_____	seats	@ $20 =	__________

Contribution to JASNA programming (Thank you!) __________

TOTAL $__________

Mail this form and a check, payable to JASNA NY, to Diane Mangasarian, 170 West End Ave, Apt 21E, New York, NY 10023, OR

Register via PayPal by going to jasnany.org